LOCAL MISCELLANY

A CONSIGNMENT OF SLUNG-SHOTS.

While freight was being unloaded from a steamer of the Baltimore Transpertation Company at Pier No. 7, North River, yesterday, a box was broken by faling and a slung-shot rolled out. Examination showed that the box contained 250 new slung-shots. There were five similar boxes taken from the steamer all marked, "H. O. Naerger, New-York." The bill of lading, given when the steamer left Baltimore on Saturday, was for six boxes of "Chocolate." Captain Gastlin, of the Steamboat Squad, was informed of the discovery and he seized the slung-shots as contraband goods and had them removed to the Property Clerk's office at Police Headquarters. Sections 409 and 410 of the Penal Code make it a misdemeanor for a person to manufacture or sell slung-shots in this State, while the carrying of a slung-shot concealed about the person is made a felony. In the afternoon a German, who said he was Herman O. Naerger, a manufacturer of whips on a small scale at No.40½ Fawnst., Baltimore, went to the pier where the slungshots had been seized and made inquiries for them, lie was arrested by Detective Mailon, and taken before Superintendent Walling, at Police Headquarters. His arrest seemed to surprise him very much, and he said that he did not know that he was violating the law by bringing slung-shots to New-York for sale. When asked why the bill of lading was made out for "chocolate" instead of for slung-shots, he said that he told the agent that the boxes contained "joggerheads." He thought the agent must have mistaken the word. With apparent frankness he went on to tell the Superintendent that he had manufactured the slung-shots for George G. Moore, of No. 302 Broadway, and Charles Folsom, of No. 106 Chambers-st., both dealers in guns. The dealers had ordered the goods recently, he said, and he had come to New-York with them to a creditor at No. 27 Ann-st. About three years ago he supplied the same dealers with a quantity of slung-shots, hie give he more he received for them to a creditor at No. 27 Ann-st A CONSIGNMENT OF SLUNG-SHOTS.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD.

The Woman's Guild met at the rooms of the Working Woman's Protective Union, No. 19 Clinton-place, last evening and completed its organization. Madame Demarest was elected president at the last meeting and Miss Ada Smith secretary. Last evening Mrs. J. O. Wood and Mrs. Charles Barnard were elected vice presidents; Madame Lerrar, treasurer, and Mrs. I. C. Fales, Miss Wyer, Mrs. J. J. Croly, Mrs. Kate E. Diggs, Mrs. Esther Hermann, Miss Crowell and Miss Allen, the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee selected as an Advisory Committee J. O. Wood, Orlando B. Potter and M. S. Beach, Mr. Wood suggested tout the Guild should take a wider view of the interests of the 165,000 working women of New-York, and advised the provision of such means as would enable women to pass a week or two of the summer at the sea shore or among the monntains at a cost not exceeding $3 or $5 a week. Such an effort he said would readity find support in the city.

CHARGES AGAINST POLICEMEN.

Among the policemen who were arraigned before the Police Commissioners yesterday on charges of improper treatment of citizens were l'atrolmen John Sinder, of the Sevent-earth Precinct, and Damel McCarthy, of the Twelfth Precinct, who were accused of using their revolvers recklessly. Sinder, according to the testimony of reputable witnesses, went into the boarding-house No. 210 East Eleventh-st., and threatened to shoot any person who attempted to leave the place. The only excuse he rould effer for his conduct was hat he went to the house to find a witness who was wanted in the Court of Special Sessions. McCarthy was accused of refersing to pay for a creakfast he had eaten in the restaurant at No. 2,338 Third-ave., and afterward chasing the gashier, C. W. Wilson, into the sireet with a drawn revolver. McCarthy said that Wilson had tried to "bulldoze" him with a club. The Commissioners reserved decision in both cases. CHARGES AGAINST POLICEMEN.

FRUIT IMPORTERS WANT A PIER.

FRUIT IMPORTERS WANT A PIER.

The application of John McCormick & Co., Gomez & Pearsall, and other importers of West Indies iruits, that the Dock Department renew its lease of the buikhead at Buring slip, is being delayed by the opposition of the Mallory Steines in Line. The dealers complain that they are fle aggreat inconvenience and serious losses, at the are forced to unload vessels at a long distance from their stores. It is charged that the Mailory Line malictously places lighters and other boats in the way of fruit vessels getting in at this point. The importers are auxious that a per may be allotted to them. The season's arrivals are usually about 3,000,000 pincapples and 600,000 bunches of bananas, and it is feared that unless the request is granted higher prices will prevail.

The 14th Regiment, of Brooklyn, last night performed an impressive mritary ension, that of saluting with honors the old colors borne by the organization through twenty-two battles of the inte war, and this edstom it is intended shall be "a sacred ceremony which will be observed on each recurring anniversary" of the nuster into the United States strice on May 23, 1861 "as long as there shall be one veterial living to bear the colors before the regiment." The ceremonies were preceded by musical selections by the regimental band, a battalion drill and the parade of the war veterans, commanied by General E. B. Fowler. The colors, with staff shattered by a Rebel shell, and only a few briefs of their once ample folds hanging to the staff, were borne by the war veterans, and say they were placed in front of the regiment the drums rolled and the new regimental colors were dipped. A dress parade closed the military exercises of the evening, and dancing followed. HONORING WAR COLORS.

THE COMING BICYCLE RACE.

THE COMING BICYCLE RACE.

Wheelmen think of nothing but their "meet" on Monday, and as recent accessions to local clubs have been new riders, considerable training has been necessary to insure a proper showing. Club ruins for drill and company riding are held every Saturday afternoon. The new sociable tricycle was out last Saturday, and the appearance on it of the owner's wife is eagerly looked for by wheelmen, as crusty drivers and inflexible Park Commissioners must give way when ladies adopt the prevailing English inshion of tricycles.

SUNKEN LOTS TO BE FILLED. D. R. Kendali, who owns some sunken lots on the north side of One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st., between Fifth and Sixth aves., recently asked the Board of Health to permit the Commissioner of Street Cleaning to fill up the lots by dumping ashes there. The Board yesterday granted the request, on condition that great care should be taken to prevent any garbage from being dumped on the lots.
